Visitors Charmed with Maui.

Professor W. J. McNeil and Mrs. McNeil are on Maui sightseeing.

They have visited Waikapu Valley, where the walls are a solid mass of large maiden hair ferns, and the waterfalls come down many hundreds of feet.

They were so enchanted with Iao Valley that they spent five days there and regretted having to leave. Waihee Valley was also explored and Elelie falls visited.

After leaving Wailuku they visited Haleakala crater, and expect to look over the rubber plantation before they return.

They are charmed with Maui and expect to visit us again.

BY AUTHORITY.

General Election Proclamation.

Issued by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Maui.

Whereas, in pursuance of law, George R. Carter, Governor of the Territory of Hawaii, has issued an election proclamation, giving notice that a general election for a delegate to the House of Representatives of the United States to serve during the Sixtieth Congress and for senators and representatives of the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii, will be held on Tuesday, November 6, A. D. 1906, throughout said Territory, between the hours of eight o'clock A. M. and five o'clock P. M.; and in said notice has designated the Senatorial and Representative districts; and

Whereas, section 36, chapter 10, of Act 39 of the Session Laws of 1905, being an act creating counties within the Territory of Hawaii, and providing for the Government thereof, provides that at least sixty days before a general election, the Board of Supervisors of each county shall issue a proclamation concerning county elections

Now therefore, in compliance with said law the Board of Supervisors within and for the County of Maui, does hereby give notice that a general election for County officers for the County of Maui will be held on Tuesday, November 6, 1906, throughout the County of Maui, between the hours of eight o'clock A. M. and 5 o'clock P. M.; the various county officers to be then elected being as follows:

A Board of five County Supervisors, to-wit:

One Supervisor from the District of Makawao,

One Supervisor from the District of Wailuku,

One Supervisor from the District of Lahaina,

One Supervisor from the District of Hana,

One Supervisor from the District of Molokai, each member thereof to be elected by the duly qualified electors of his district.

A County Sheriff, County Attorney, County Clerk, County Auditor, and County Treasurer; each elected by the duly qualified electors of the County of Maui.

Five Deputy Sheriffs, to-wit:

One Deputy Sheriff from Makawao District,

One Deputy Sheriff from Wailuku District,

One Deputy Sheriff from Lahaina District,

One Deputy Sheriff from Hana District,

One Deputy Sheriff from Molokai District,

each Deputy Sheriff elected by the duly qualified electors of his district.

Notice is also given that, under the provisions of section 30, chapter 10, of Act 39, Session Laws of 1905, the precincts and polling places established by the Laws of the Territory of Hawaii for the election of Territorial Senators and Representatives constitute the precincts and polling places for the election of County officers, and elections for all County officers will therefore be had in the precincts and at the polling places designated in the General Election Proclamation of the Governor of Hawaii, of Date July 20, 1906.

Done at Wailuku, Maui, this 7th day of August.
